PAUL COLLIER WRITES FROM WASH.TN STATE

Camp Hatheway, Wash. Sunday, May 30.
Dear Editor and Friends:
I have just received a copy of The Elba Clipper of which I am an ardent reader. I received a copy of the paper every Tuesday and always look forward to receiving it. The thing that has been of particular interest to me is comments and letters from the hometown boys in the service, and what they have been doing. I am assigned to Group IV Regulating Station, Camp Hatheway, Washington, and have been going to school here for the last two months. I can't tell you any of the particulars of my training as it is a strictly confidential information. The men in my outfit are specially picked men and all have qualifications in the S., but very few will go as their services are more suitable in this particular branch of the service. We are 40 per cent of the men are college graduates, and nearly all the rest were in college when they were called into the service.

It took us 4 1/2 days to get here from the Reception Center in Atlanta. While on this trip I learned what cold weather and snow really were. Give me Alabama any time and I will be satisfied. When we arrived at our destination it was raining nearly every day until about two weeks ago. The weather is very pleasant now and the country is very beautiful, especially the apple orchards and mountains. We are only about ten miles from Portland, Oregon, which is a very large city and seaport. I have seen several ship launchings, and which was launched by Gail Paige, the movie actress, and have seen many ships from friendly nations, all of which is quite an experience for a Southern boy. This is about all the news I have for this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Devane, Mrs. Claudie Maddox, Mr. W. R. Rowell, Mrs. Ed Taylor, Edna Sue and Patsy McCollough visited in Panama City, Fla., over the week-end.

Ensign and Mrs. Ralph L. Brunson are guests of his mother, Mrs. F. P. Brunson, and family for a few days. He has been stationed in North Carolina for some time but after his visit here will go to a new assignment.

IN MEMORIAM

Whereas, it has pleased the Grand Master of the Universe to call from labor to refreshment our Prother, John M. Garrett; and Whereas, Brother Garrett was a true and faithful member of Elba Lodge No. 170, A. F. & A. M., for many years, having united with our Lodge on August 7, 1905, and having been made a Mason by Freeport Lodge, at Freeport, Florida, prior to his coming to Elba, Alabama; and Whereas, Brother Garrett loved the principles and tenets of our ancient and honored fraternity, and exemplified in his life and conduct the high and noble principles of Masonry, and lived as a just and upright Mason in our midst and as a member of our Lodge;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by Elba Lodge No. 170, A. F. & A. M., 1. That we hereby express our appreciation of his Masonic life and conduct and our condolence and sympathy to his honored family. Brother Garrett was the son of Mr. Robert Garrett and Mrs. Emily Jordan Garrett, who resided at Freeport, Florida. He was born August 24, 1865, and died March 30, 1943, at his home in Elba, Alabama. He left surviving his widow, Mrs. Maggie Flannery Garrett, and three children: Capt. John M. Garrett, Jr., Gunter, Field, Montgomery, Alabama; and Mrs. Margaret Garrett Bynum, Syracuse, New York; and grandson, William O. Bynum, Jr., Syracuse, New York.

2. That we hereby express our deep sympathy to the members of his family in their bereavement. We commend his Masonic record to the members of our Masonic fraternity, and we express our sorrow at his passing; but we are assured by Holy Writ, our great light in Masonry, of that eternal life which awaits us beyond this life and the grave, for, indeed, "It is not all of life to live nor all of death to die."

3. That a copy of these resolutions be furnished The Elba Clipper for publication, and a copy be spread upon the minutes of our Lodge, and a copy furnished to the family of Brother Garrett.

Sincerely submitted,
J. W. Kendrick,
S. Fleetwood Gamley,
S. R. Chappell.

HOW TO WRITE TO BOYS IN THE SERVICE

The Office of War Information offers these pointers for homefolks writing to soldiers, sailors and marines—based on suggestions gathered in a survey among servicemen at home and overseas, in cooperation with the Special Service Division of the Army Service Forces:

Tell Him:
1. How the family is doing—everything possible to help in the war.
2. How anxious the family is for the boy's return.
3. How well and busy the family is. Give details.
4. How the family is getting along financially.

5. What's doing in the community: news about girls (single) he knows, friends of friends, who's marrying whom, exploits of the home team and other sports events, social doings, effects of the war on the home town. Reminisce a little about past events and places the boy used to visit. Enclose clippings from the home town paper.

Don't Tell Him:
1. Your troubles. He has troubles of his own.
2. Your complaints. He lived as a just and upright Mason in our midst and as a member of our Lodge.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by Elba Lodge No. 170, A. F. & A. M., 1. That we hereby express our appreciation of his Masonic life and conduct and our condolence and sympathy to his honored family. Brother Garrett was the son of Mr. Robert Garrett and Mrs. Emily Jordan Garrett, who resided at Freeport, Florida. He was born August 24, 1865, and died March 30, 1943, at his home in Elba, Alabama. He left surviving his widow, Mrs. Maggie Flannery Garrett, and three children: Capt. John M. Garrett, Jr., Gunter, Field, Montgomery, Alabama; and Mrs. Margaret Garrett Bynum, Syracuse, New York; and grandson, William O. Bynum, Jr., Syracuse, New York.

2. That we hereby express our deep sympathy to the members of his family in their bereavement. We commend his Masonic record to the members of our Masonic fraternity, and we express our sorrow at his passing; but we are assured by Holy Writ, our great light in Masonry, of that eternal life which awaits us beyond this life and the grave, for, indeed, "It is not all of life to live nor all of death to die."

3. That a copy of these resolutions be furnished The Elba Clipper for publication, and a copy be spread upon the minutes of our Lodge, and a copy furnished to the family of Brother Garrett.

Sincerely submitted,
J. W. Kendrick,
S. Fleetwood Gamley,
S. R. Chappell.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By H. H. WILKINSON
Associated Newspapers, WFO Feature.

Lesson for June 20
Lesson subjects and Scripture texts are selected and copyrighted by International Sunday School Lessons, Inc., and are published by Western Christian Union.

JOHN DESCRIBES TRUE CHRISTIANS
LESSON TEXT—1 John 2:14-23:18
GOLDEN TEXT—If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.—1 John 1:7.

Religion and life go together. To believe the tenets of Christian truth in one's head and not to have them move the heart is to deny the very thing which is the essence of religion. The result is that much of "what passes for Christianity in these days is very thin stuff, very remote from the original" (the maker).

John was not content with such a weak initiation, and in his writings he set up the true standard of a forgiven and transformed life, living itself out in love and sacrificial service. If we have forgotten what God means us to be in Christ, or have become members of a church which has strayed from the true and living Word, this lesson affords an opportunity for penitence and works must thereunto.

The true Christian life must have:
I. Sin Forgiven and Life Transformed (1 John 2:14-23:18).
Not only at the beginning of the Christian life is sin dealt with and put away, but day by day—yes, moment by moment—we have the cleansing power of the blood of our Divine Advocate.

This is of the utmost importance, for God can only use clean channels for the outgoing of His power and grace to the world. We know our own weakness and the defiling presence of the world. But unlike the unregenerate man, we do not submit and go down; we turn to Christ for forgiveness and cleansing.

The transformation of life which this comes to the believer is shown in obedience to the commandments of God. In the early church there were those who said that if they only believed in Christ as Saviour they need not differ from those who lived and they have their followers in our day. Be sure of this, the essential thing in Christian profession is not how you talk about Christ, but how you walk in obedience to His commandments.

Real Christianity will cause us to be:
II. Hated by the World and Loved by the Brethren (1 John 3:13-18).
The world, that is, unregenerate mankind, hates a genuine Christian no matter how kind and loving he may be. Why? "Because the Christian believer gives the non-believer an uncomfortable sense of inferiority. The presence of high Christian ideals in marked contrast to his own selfish policies arouses his anger and hatred" (Douglas).

The presence of a clean, godly life in a community makes every sincere look that much blacker, and the world, the flesh, and the devil will do everything possible to break down and destroy such a testimony. We, as Christians, should not be surprised that the world hates us. In fact, we should be troubled if it does not hate us, for if our Christianity really means anything, it is distasteful to a God-hating world. Beware if sinners find nothing in your life which distresses them and convicts them of sin.

In the midst of enmity the Christian is not afraid, for he is:
III. Indwelt by God and Unafraid in the World (1 John 4:15-17).
A sincere confession of Christ as Saviour brings a man into that close relationship to God which is expressed in the words, "God abideth in him, and he in God" (v. 15). The full depth of meaning of these words is obviously beyond our limited understanding, but we accept the fact by faith and rejoice in it. We recognize that it means that we are brought by our faith in Christ, into the very center of God's love. Christ, the well-beloved Son, who stands in that blessed place, draws us into the circle and there we stand in Him.

God's love showed itself in the giving of His Son as the Redeemer of the world. It was and is unselfish and sacrificial devotion to the eternal welfare of those who merited only judgment. We do not love until we reflect that quality in our lives.

Such love casts out fear. Fellowship is impossible in an atmosphere of fear, but love rules it out. In Christ we realize that God first loved us, and then our hearts go out in warm devotion to him.

Not only does the Christian no longer fear the day of judgment, but he is unafraid in the present evil world. This is not because of his own strength or ability, but because through faith in Christ he is "in God," and "as He is, so are we in this world" (v. 17). No more perfect or blessed ground of assurance could possibly be provided. Let us recognize our position in Him, and be strong and unafraid.

SYBLE J. GOODSON CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY
Syble Janette Goodson, little daughter of Mrs. Bonnie Faye Goodson, celebrated her 5th birthday on June 12, at her home, 212 S. 2nd St., with a birthday party at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Joe Lee Kendrick, of East Tallapoosa.

She received many pretty and useful gifts. After refreshments were served, the guests sang songs, and a movie, accompanied by Mrs. Bonnie Faye Goodson and Miss Zara Watson.

Those present were: Jean Davidson, Jane Davidson, Myrtle Ruth Pemberton, Betty Jo Pemberton, Eloise Williams, Susie Royce, Betty Jean Melton, Dorothy Dean Melton, Christine Watson, Nancy Dean Brown, Patricia Clanton, Ruth Finney, Vivian Finney, Sue Ellen Kendrick, Robert Pemberton, Bobby Pruitt, Joe Bob Darnell, James Goodson, and the honoree, Syble Janette Goodson.

Mrs. Joe Lee Kendrick, East Tallapoosa.

Keep dirt out of the house as much as possible by cleaning the walks, steps and porches regularly. A footmat at the door will catch dirt and dust from shoes.

Hang out work shirts and overalls dripping wet. Don't wring them and they will need very little ironing.

Plenty of hot water, soap and clean towels kept near the sink or dishpan are usually necessary to protect young bolts. This makes from five to seven applications needed to protect cotton throughout the season. Dust can be applied any time of day or night if the sink or dishpan are not necessary for the plant to be wet with dew when the poison is applied.

Cottons and other small green insects that feed on the under side of the cotton leaves and are usually worse.

PERDUE NEWS

The health of this community is very good at this writing. Everybody is busy working at something. Crops are very small throughout this section, but everyone is doing their best.

Mrs. Lois Carter is visiting relatives at Bluff Springs this week.

Mrs. Myron Hagler and Mr. D. A. Horton made a business trip to Troy last Tuesday.

Miss Vivian Boutwell attended the 5th birthday party of her daughter, Syble Janette Goodson, at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Joe Lee Kendrick, of East Tallapoosa.

Mr. D. C. Dawkins, of near Opp, and Mr. Charlie Dawkins visited in our midst Sunday afternoon.

Miss Marion Newsome made a business trip to Elba last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peacock, Miss Inez Ryals, of Troy, and Mr. Henry Peacock, of Montgomery, visited relatives here recently.

Miss Hilda Boutwell, of Victoria; Messrs Ray Hudson and Morris Johnson, of Zion Chapel, were visitors of Miss Vivian Boutwell Sunday afternoon.

FARMERS URGED TO FIGHT COTTON PESTS

With maximum cotton production on reduced acreage a wartime necessity, it is imperative that Coffee County farmers control cotton insects, says Hugh D. Sexton, county agent, in advising that "diligent and intelligent use of poison is the best way to control boll weevils, flea hoppers, cotton aphids, boll worms and leaf worms."

The cotton flea hopper puts its appearance as soon as cotton squares are formed and often prevents the plants from fruiting where cotton is planted on heavy, stiff soil. It can be controlled by dusting the cotton every week with a mixture of one part calcium arsenate and two parts of dusting sulphur until two or three applications are made. From 5 to 10 pounds per acre should be applied each time the cotton is dusted.

To combat boll weevil, the most destructive cotton insect, farmers must watch their plants closely throughout the growing season.

On light soils, the first application of calcium arsenate should be made as soon as 10 per cent of the squares are matured. On heavy, fertilized soils, dusting may be delayed until 15 to 25 per cent of the squares are matured. From 5 to 10 pounds of calcium arsenate per acre will be needed for each dusting. Applications should be repeated every four or five days until the weevils are controlled. If poison is washed off within 24 hours, repeat the application. Contrary to belief, the use of poison is most profitable in rainy seasons.

After the cotton crop is set, one or two applications are usually necessary to protect young bolts. This makes from five to seven applications needed to protect cotton throughout the season. Dust can be applied any time of day or night if the sink or dishpan are not necessary for the plant to be wet with dew when the poison is applied.

Cottons and other small green insects that feed on the under side of the cotton leaves and are usually worse.

PROTECT PULLETS BY PROPER VACCINATION

Auburn, Ala.—To protect the spring pullet crop, Alabama farmers should vaccinate birds for foot-and-mouth disease when they are from 8 to 12 weeks of age, points out John Ivey, extension poultryman, Auburn.

There are two methods of vaccination: the stab or stick method and the follicle method. In the stab method use a narrow sharp pointed knife or lancet with adhesive tape wrapped around the blade about 1-8 of an inch from the point. Vaccination is done by dipping this instrument into a bottle of vaccine and making a quick stab sufficient to penetrate the skin. The most convenient place to vaccinate by this method is on the outside of the leg near the knee joint.

A variation of the stab method recently reported is the use of two sewing machine needles pushed thru a cork with the points about 1/4 inch apart. When this instrument is used, the wing is stretched out and the web is pierced from the outside. To use the follicle method, several feathers are plucked from the front of the leg and the vaccine rubbered into the empty feather and the web with a brush or other suitable applicator. The reaction denoting the "vaccination take" may be noticed in 7 to 10 days. The place of vaccination will show inflammation and later the formation of a scab.

Alabama has been divided into seven areas by the Alabama USDA War Board which has named a marketing supervisor for each area to supervise the slaughtering and distribution of meat.

Mr. W. F. Fortner has returned from Panama City, Fla., where he was employed in the shipyard.

Miss Nettie Flournoy and Mrs. O. W. Bynum were visitors to Montgomery Monday.

Car Owners Urged To File Applications For New Ration Books

District OPA officials at Montgomery this week urged motorists and motorcycle owners to act promptly in making applications for new ration books for their new cars and "D" for motorcycles—expire July 21. Because issuance of replacement ration books involves considerable bookkeeping work, persons who delay executing and mailing the application run the risk of being without gas ration coupons when the next ration period begins on July 22.
